Starting as a teller in 1958, and presently serving as Chief Executive Officer, I am a testimony of the American Dream and attribute much of this success to the opportunities provided by a thriving GECU membership.

Our employees not only have a good place to work and to build a career, but they have an opportunity to make a dramatic difference in peoples' lives. From serving as a member service representative in our call center to granting credit to a first time home buyer, all of our employees make a difference.
