There are two different payment options with our Business credit card.

Individual Pay: Each individual cardholder will receive a monthly credit card statement and be responsible for making payments on their statement. (Complete all steps, except for step 4.)

Consolidated Pay: The company receives a master statement, or grand total, of all individual cardholders and is responsible for making the monthly payment. With Consolidated Pay, a master account is set-up and individuals, or sub-accounts, are created under the master account. These sub-accounts can be set-up to receive an individual statement listing of the charges made, but the actual monetary items appear on the master statement. (Complete all steps.)

The Federal Equal Credit Opportunity Act prohibits creditors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status, age (provided the applicant has the capacity to enter into a binding contract); because all or part of the applicant's income derives from any public assistance program; or because the applicant has in good faith exercised any right under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The federal agency that administers compliance with this law concerning this creditor is the National Credit Union Administration, 7000 Central Parkway, Suite 1600, Atlanta, GA 30328. The Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana Laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all credit worthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana Civil Rights Commissions administer compliance with this law. California Residents: Applicants 1) may, after credit approval, use the credit card account up to its credit limit; 2) may be liable for amounts extended under the plan to any joint applicant. As required by law, you are hereby notified that a negative credit report reflecting on your credit record may be submitted to a credit reporting agency if you fail to fulfill the terms of your credit obligations. New York and Vermont Residents: GECU may obtain at any time your credit reports, for any legitimate purpose associated with the account or the application or request for an account, including but not limited to reviewing, modifying, renewing and collecting on your account. On your request, you will be informed if such a report was ordered. If so, you will be given the name and address of the consumer reporting agency furnishing the report. New York residents may contact the New York State Banking Department (1-800-518-8866) for a comparative list of credit card rates, fees and grace periods. Married Wisconsin Residents: No provision of any marital property agreement, unilateral statement, or court order applying to marital property will adversely affect a creditor's interests unless prior to the time credit is granted, the creditor is furnished with a copy of the agreement, statement or court order, or has actual knowledge of the provision.
